

Brooks, James

Shoulder MRI Exam, 10/10/2008

Preliminary Info

Name: Brooks, James

Patient ID: 124356723

DOB: 1/1/1980

Age: 28 yrs

Ref. Phys: Martinez, David, M.D.

History: Pain on movement.

Allergies: None

Premedication: YES NO

Exam Date: 10/10/2008

Exam Site: RSNA

Procedure: Shoulder MRI

Technique: Axial, coronal, saggital and abduction T1/T2 spin echo images.

Contrast: None.

Slice Thickness: 5 mm contiguous

Comparison: 4/16/2008

Accession #: 123456

Study UID: 1.1000.100000.123456789

Findings

Shoulder: The AC joint appears normal. The acromial shape is normal with no narrowing of the subacromial space. The supraspinatus, infraspinatus and subscapularis tendons appear normal. The biceps tendon is normal in appearance and location. No gross abnormality is seen of the glenoid labrum.

Impressions and Recommendations

Normal Shoulder MRI exam.

* * *

Electronically signed and authenticated by: Peter Dale, M.D.

October 10, 2008 at 4:15:28 PM